About

Currently Principal Cloud Advocate Lead at Microsoft.

Formerly VP at Progress/Telerik, where I lead product and developer relations teams for more than 12 years. Originally focused on .NET ecosystem (C# MVP for 5 years), then shifted to focus on JavaScript web development. During that time, I helped create and lead the Kendo UI team at Telerik. Eventually shifted to focus on cross-platform mobile app development (with JavaScript), helping lead and grow the open source NativeScript framework at Telerik (and then Progress).

I've spent years now leading large, global teams and helping drive business growth at both fast growing startups and
