I'm searching a small Java based RSS/Feed Generator, something like the FeedCreator.class.php library, any suggestions?, thanks!

This is the one I ended up using, thanks! – ramayac Mar 10, 2010 at 16:50

Sadly, looks like rometools.org has had it's domain expire- but a bit of digging finds rometools.github.io/rome – Roberto Tyley Feb 28, 2014 at 10:03

How about jRSS? It looks promising -- supports generating RSS 2 and is relatively small.

I used an API a few years back called ROME. I thought it was a breeze to set up and get going with.

i used Informa with success. especially useful if you plan to support multiple verison of rss (0.9-2.0) reasonable sized library , well documented.
