About

Ten year old .NET developer with a seven year history as a devop sys admin and IT-manager now doing VR game development and community management.

First game released in 2012 on Xbox 360 is due for a re-release on the Steam platform and is called Eat my Shuriken and Die!

Enjoys: virtualization, streamlining people, processes and policies, solving actual business problems with system integration and development and taming that bear to outperform even the best human dancers, creative demo parties like Easterparty.
